

News Release – Kabel receives Best Supplier Award from B/S/H/

30.10.2014, Eskişehir

Endel Industrial Products Group announced that its group member “Kabel Kablo Elemanları San. ve Tic. AŞ” been honored with the best supplier award from “B/S/H/ Bosch und Siemens Hausgerate GmbH” in the category of Electrical.

BSH Supplier Award ceremony is held in every two years and this year was held in Lake Starnberg close to Munich on the 6th of October. The BSH Supplier Day ceremony was used as a stage for acknowledging the BSH’s best suppliers for their services over the last two years, for their performances in quality, reliability, flexibility, innovation and price. Speaking during the ceremony, Johannes Nârger, CFO of BSH, emphasized that suppliers who provide BSH with a reliable supply of innovative, top-quality products at attractive prices will be able to participate more than ever in BSH’s growth.

BSH welcomed approximately thirty suppliers from eleven countries after an evaluation of 2.400 suppliers in six categories, Electrical, Plastic, Metal, Modules& Other, Best Challenger and Best Global. Only six winners in these categories were awarded. Kabel A.Ş. was awarded as the Best Global Supplier in Electrical category.

“We are honored that B/S/H/ has recognized the Kabel team and our contribution to their success,” said Ş.Burak Özaydemir, vice-chairman of the board. “This award reflects the considerable efforts and investments we have made to support B/S/H/ globally by manufacturing cable harnesses for different plants and divisions.”
